Call Special Meeting To Order

Mayor Maroun called the Special Meeting to order and established the agenda.

Re-opening Plans Post COVID19

Trustee Hollingsworth asked for a special meeting to discuss re-opening planning post COVID19. He was more specifically requesting that we reopen the parks and youth ball fields now before Phase 3 announcements.

Mayor Maroun and Trustee LaScala reviewed to severity of the Governor's Executive Orders and the laws they represent.

Trustee LeBlanc stated we don't make the rules but we have to follow them. He wasn't comfortable opening the parks with out word from the Governor that we can.

Trustee LaScala stated that the information changes daily, he doesn't want any business to loose their license to operate so we are going to have to follow the rules.

Mayor Maroun strongly encourages all residents to wear a mask in public places and stores etc. He advised we are awaiting TLCSD's plans for our graduation ceremony plans, but like most we are waiting for word from the Governor as to how we can hold those larger events. He did plead with residents and visitors to please wear their masks for everyone's safety.

Other Plans Drive-In & 3rd of July Fireworks

Mayor Maroun advised he has authorized NC Radio to sponsor a Drive-In in the Municipal Park, attendees will have to stay in their cars, the ball club will offer the parking and refreshments for the event as a fund raiser. Good Guy Productions will have their large screens available for the movie showing.

Trustee LeBlanc stated this will be a good trial for our 3rd of July Independence Day Celebration.

Trustee Hollingsworth asked when will the ball fields, basketball, and the band shell be open?

Mayor Maroun advised he was expecting in Phase 4 but wasn't 100% sure since the Governor may give our area a different schedule since our population is less.

Mayor Maroun did advise that the skate park, tennis courts and walking trails are open to groups of 10 or less.
