Village of Tupper Lake Accepting Applications for Owner-Occupied Rehabilitation Program

Tupper Lake, New York – March 23, 2021

The Village of Tupper Lake was the recent recipient of a New York State Affordable Housing Corporation grant in the amount of $400,000 for the rehabilitation of approximately twelve eligible owner-occupied homes in the Village. Funds may be used to address health and safety concerns, and improve energy efficiency and handicap accessibility.

To be eligible for the program the applicant must:

- Own and occupy a single family home in the Village of Tupper Lake;
- Be current on all School, County, and Village taxes, as applicable, and all other municipal obligations (ex. water and sewer bills);
- Have homeowner's insurance;
- Have an adjusted gross income that is at or below 112% of the county median income for your household size.

Household Size
1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8
$42,202	$48,205	$54,208	$60,211	$65,050	$69,888	$74,726	$79,565

Updated 4/1/2020

The Village has entered into an agreement with the Development Authority of the North Country to administer the housing program.

Applications are currently available on the Village's website, www.tupperlakeny.gov, or at the Village Offices located at 53 Park Street, PO Box 1290, Tupper Lake, NY 12986. Questions about the program can be directed to Matthew Taylor, Development Authority of the North Country, at (315) 661-3200, or mtaylor@danc.org.
